BMI Federal Credit Union Received a Grant From the Ohio Credit Union Foundation

Dublin, Ohio (August 24, 2022) –BMI Federal Credit Union received grant funding from the Ohio Credit Union Foundation for the second year in a row. Last year, the Credit Union used the grant funding to conduct a Financial Fitness Boot Camp with the Women’s Empowerment Program (WEP) through the North Community Counseling Centers (NCCC). The grant received for this year will be used to help fund and conduct a new and improved version of the Boot Camp for the WEP and NCCC. The Financial Fitness Bootcamp will take place through September 2022 at the Hilltop Metropolitan Library.

The Financial Fitness Boot Camp is designed specifically to meet the needs and interests of the WEP participants and their NCCC Case Managers, with the goal of increasing financial literacy and improving financial wellness. The women who come through the program will be better equipped to manage their personal finances as they move towards achieving independence. The knowledge gained by the Case Managers will help equip them to better support the women in overcoming obstacles.

“We are so grateful to have a second opportunity to financially serve the women and Case Managers from WEP and NCC through grant funding from the Ohio Credit Union Foundation to conduct another successful Financial Fitness Boot Camp,” says Vice President of Business and Community Development, Sarah Bach.

About The Women’s Empowerment Program Through North Community Counseling Centers

The WEP is an existing program offered through North Community Counseling Centers (NCCC), a non-profit mental health and substance use treatment agency. Through NCCC, WEP helps at risk women gain the education and support they need to overcome barriers and manage challenges on their journey to recovery and achieving independence.
